Strange that, as Americans and Jews, we have two important New Year observances...I'm never quite sure if I should say Happy Secular New Year or just leave it at Happy New Year. My favorite New Year observance is when we are together in the fall...

What to say should be our worst problem...

I am happy to let you know that we are going to meet in person at the South Berkshire Quaker Meetinghouse 280 State Road in Great Barrington for a Shabbat morning service on Saturday, January 7th at 10am. Hope to see you there.

I do want to wish you, everyone you love and all the world, a sweet and healthy New Year and the best of everything in the year to come. May we know peace and may the leaders and decision makers that have lost their moral way come to their senses and wake up from the bad dream that has had them in its grip.

May it be so...Shabbat Shalom,
Happy Secular (?) New Year,
Your friend, Barbara
