Shabbat Shalom,

As we prepare for this first Shabbat of Adar, I've begun pulling out my hamantaschen recipes and thinking about the flavors I'll bake this year. For me, Purim is a nostalgic holiday. It brings me back to baking hamantaschen around my great grandmother's dining room table, then at my grandmother's kitchen counter, and then with my own children who were lucky enough to bake with their great grandmothers and their Bubbe!

I'd love to see your favorite Hamantaschen recipes and hear about the flavors you're baking this year.

Here's the playlist I'll be listening to as I prepare Shabbat dinner today. And, here is a beautiful D'var Torah on Terumah, by Rabbi Jonathan Sacks.

Wishing you a peaceful and meaningful Shabbat.
