Voting Prayer
by Rabbi David Mevorach Seidenberg

Adapted by Rabbi Jennifer Rudin

Behold, I am intending through my vote to seek peace for this country, as it is written (Jer.29:7):

“Seek the peace of the city where I cause you to roam and pray for her to Adonai, for in her peace you all will have peace.”

May it be Your will, Adonai, that votes be counted faithfully, and may You count my vote as if I had fulfilled this verse with all my power.

May You give a listening heart to whomever we elect and may it be good in Your eyes to raise for us a good government that will bring healing, justice and peace to all living in this land and to all the world, a government that will honor the image of God in all humanity and in Creation, for rulership is Yours.

Just as I have participated in the election, so may I merit to do good works and to repair the world through all my efforts, on behalf of all living creatures, in remembrance of the covenant of Noah’s waters to protect and to not destroy the earth and her plenitude.
