

Congregation Ahavath Sholom

The Creative Spirit Dwells Here

Café Kehilah and Thanksgiving Greetings

Rabbi Jennifer Rudin
Interim Rabbi
Congregation
Ahavath Sholom
508-333-1991

rabbirudinahavathsholom@gmail.com

15 North St. GB, Ma 01230

ahavathsholom.com

November 26, 2024 / 25 Cheshvan,
5785

Dear Friends,

Due to Thanksgiving preparations, there will be no Café Kehilah this week. We'll be back next Wednesday, December 6, at 10:00 AM, and I hope to see you then!

Last Shabbat, we studied Parashat Chayei Sarah (The Life of Sarah). During our discussion, I mentioned the book Who Wrote the Bible? by Richard Elliott Friedman. It offers a fascinating literary analysis of the Torah, and I highly recommend it. If you're interested, I'd love to organize a virtual book group where we can read and discuss it together. Please feel free to email me at rabbirudinahavathsholom@gmail.com if you'd like to join.

Since my Shabbat email didn't reach everyone last week, I'd also like to reshare a link to a beautiful song that I hope will elevate your spirit. To enjoy the music, click here.

Wishing you all a wonderful Thanksgiving filled with good food, joyful moments, and gratitude.
With love,
Rabbi Rudin

Congregation Ahavath Sholom

15 North Street, P.O. Box 464
Great Barrington, Ma 01230
413-528-4197

\